After sentencing on June 22, 2006, Probation Officer Lynn Richards met with defendant Elgin Blancaflor Sarique in her office. While she was explaining the condition of probation prohibiting contact with the co-defendants, Mr. Sarique informed Ms. Richards that he sees co-defendant Agosto Ayson Biagon, at family events, as he is related to Mr. Biagon, and that he attends the same church as does Mr. Biagon. Mr. Sarique would like to continue to go this church and to attend family functions. Ms. Richards has no objection to modifying the conditions of probation to permit Mr. Sarique to have contact with Mr. Biagon at church and family functions.

For the reasons stated above, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED that the condition of probation prohibiting contact with any of the co-defendants named in this case be modified to
